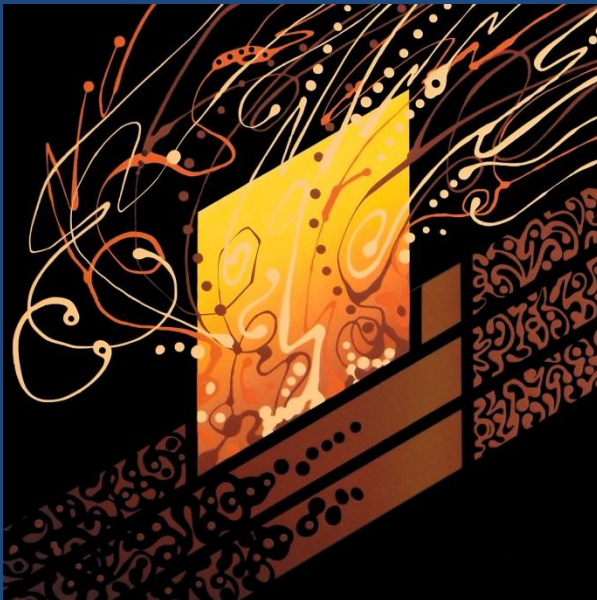

EXHIBITION CATALOGUE

Bruce Luxford is a full time artist working from his Seatoun Wellington studio. 'As an observer of behaviour and events I am 'drawn' to figurative, surrealistic work with equivocal content that may encourage conversation. There is also a journey, exploring the familiar and unfamiliar within the boundless fields of scale, space and illusion. My work has sold to NZ buyers as well as to collectors in the USA, the UK, Japan, Hong Kong and Australia.'

SPONTANEOUS is an exhibition of new surrealism paintings plus a collection of 'New Style' abstract art.

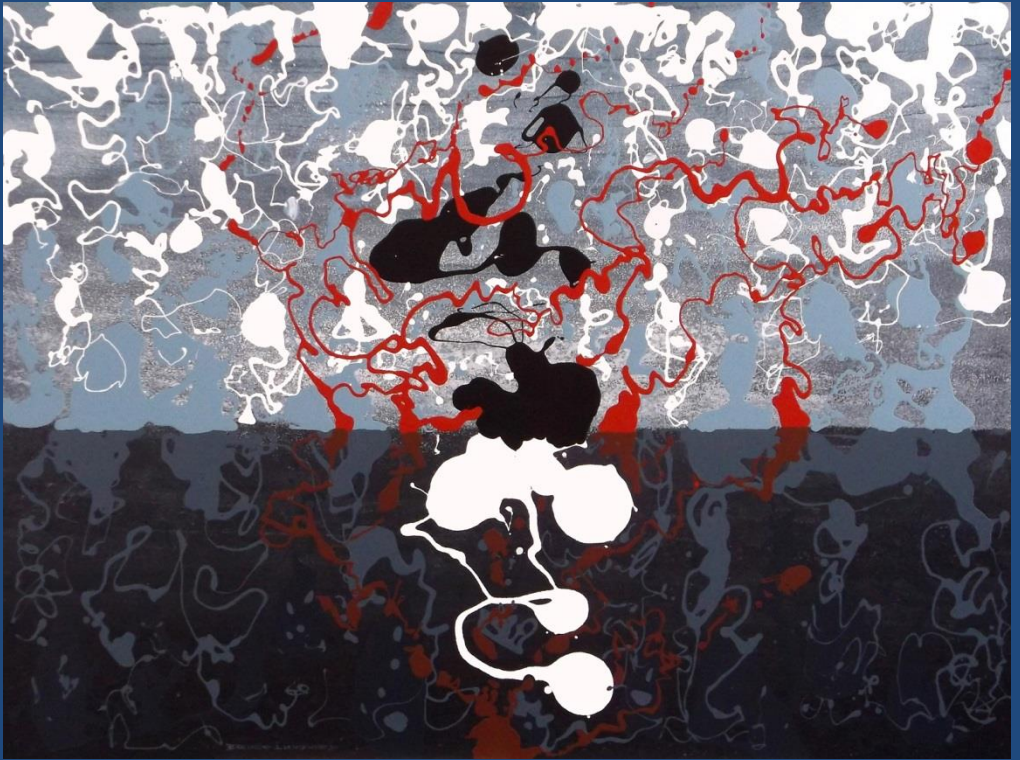

'I'm not sure what to call the 'style' of these paintings but to describe the process as I observed/experienced it may assist. The first step was in visualizing a structure that offered potential. Exactly what potential did not really matter. The second step was to introduce a spontaneous, less predictable element by applying a paint pour technique, a method by which the artist, though applying a modicum of control has to except the result. This application can only be added to, not subtracted from. Colour and form begins to inject its own meaning to the work. The titles of these works came from that.'
